

PRESIDENT: A call of the house has been requested. The question is, shall the house come under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. The Clerk will record the vote.

CLERK: 7 ayes, 1 nay to go under call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion prevails. The house shall come under call. You may call, members may call in your vote to the Clerk. The motion you are voting on is the motion to cease debate. Members, would you please check in. Check your presence light at the front board. Members of the Legislature outside the Chamber, please return to the Chamber. The house is under call. Members are properly to be in their seats during the time the house is under call. Senator Jacklyn Smith, would you record and Senator Lynch, Senator Hannibal, Senator Lundy. Yes, call in votes may be made. Members may call in your votes. Senator Vickers.

CLERK: Senator Vickers voting yes.

PRESIDENT: Senator Marsh.

CLERK: Senator Marsh voting yes. Senator Haberman voting yes.

PRESIDENT: Have you all voted?

CLERK: Senator Beutler voting yes.

PRESIDENT: Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 10 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion prevails and the debate has closed and Senator Hartnett, you are entitled for a closing statement.

SENATOR HARTNETT: I think we've spent...started at one-thirty on this. I really think that...I think Senator Higgins brings up a...now you can hear me. You know, Senator Higgins I think sometimes makes allusions to not support of the Real Estate Association. They did not support me in my election, but I think that visiting with the real estate people in my district, that there is a lot of flaws with it and I think that has been spelled out by